BEYOND
REASON

TESTIMONIALS

Thank you for taking the time to learn a little more about the impact that the Wealth Beyond Reason program is having in the lives of our students. The purpose of this document is to clearly demonstrate that our program is not only unlike virtually any other program on the Law of Attraction currently available, but that the results people are having are profound and life-changing!

If you're new to the Law of Attraction, or are unsure what impact this Universal Law of Physics is having in your life, I invite you visit our website link at the end of this document and to read the article "Introduction to the Law of Attraction".

Wealth Beyond Reason is a full curriculum in the science and practical application of the Law of Attraction for the purposes of accumulating wealth, happiness, and abundance in all areas of life. We remove the mystery and "new age" veil, and give you the hard science of these powerful principles. Our goal is to make available to even the most skeptical and analytical people, the everyday application of this powerful principle that has been utilized for literally thousands of years in the lives of history's most successful individuals.

It is only over the past century that we have become "jaded", and learned to think that these principles are simply metaphysical theory, and thus been indoctrinated into belief system that severely limits our potential as human beings.

We are here to show you that there is a better and easier way to have the life you desire to live. No hype, no leaps of faith, and no empty promises.

The testimonies you're reading in this document come from people from ALL walks of life, and virtually every profession you can imagine.

We hope that you are as inspired and moved by these results as we are:

My husband and I were on the verge of splitting about a month ago, and we are rebuilding how we think and use energy with your course... the change in the entire house can be felt as the truth and releasing and lightness that is coming of it. Thank you for your commitment to making this planet a better place, I can't wait to share our abundance of stories with you."*
- D. Wallace states: *"Talk about bringing my desires into my life, wow! One of my dreams has been to be a professional actor and voice over artist. - JD Davy shares her opinions: "My husband and I really received lots of value. Wealth Beyond Reason is extremely supportive AND inspiring. As a matter of fact, one of my biggest desires is to have an affiliate website so I can promote YOUR site! I'm looking forward to masterminding with other members! Thank YOU for this opportunity."
- He's not the only one realizing dreams, F. Desloges also wrote: "Since I received your program...good things have happened. I am now living in a beautiful house. I was in an apartment before. It is almost 1 year now. I now have a swimming pool, a garden, and beautiful flowers decorating my home. Thank you! Life Is Good."

- G. McCollough first wrote us to say: "It's been a month now since I ordered the Wealth Beyond Reason seminar. I would like to share some of the exiting things that have taken place. When I look back it is truly amazing. I started writing down all of my desires about a month ago now that list has multiplied by and grows everyday...I just bought an investment property and made $5000 at closing and have another one that will be closing in 2 weeks that I will come out of closing with 5000 +.

"My marriage has never been this great. We just booked a vacation at an all inclusive resort in Cancun for 7 nights airfare, meals, drinks, everything...Last night my wife and I just drew up the parameters for our new home and we are going to look at half million dollar homes next week. I know we will be moving in the next month into our dream home and I have figured out a way to never have to make a payment out of my own pocket...life is so grand when you can create your experiences. I just wanted to share this amazing story with you."

Then later he wrote he is realizing even more dreams: "I tell you I am getting really good at Wealth Beyond Reason it's scary. I just bought one of my dream cars, a Jag XJS convertible and it is in show room condition v 12. I couldn't believe how that came together, I just decided that I deserve it and it is mine. Everything fell into place.

" My business is taking off to a new level and, you won't believe this but, my partner and I have nearly 5 million dollars in real estate that we have acquired this last year since I started your program.. I wanted to buy ten properties by next year and I thought at the time that would be impossible. This month alone I have four properties under contract. Thanks again..."

And then later he wrote to tell us more about sharing his dreams: "I just wanted to up date you on my success...Our real estate business is booming... We incorporated your concepts with our business finding good deals. Now the good deals seem to find us. I have been able to manifest my dream job in just a few months. I get up when I want, work when I want.

"... my wife who was the biggest skeptic...I shared this secret with her and she did it. It was the best thing that ever happened to her. I feel like I am retired at 27 years old. By the time I am 30 years old I will have over 10 million in real estate. Less than a year ago I was in a failing job and trying to figure out how to pay my bills. Bob, thanks for attracting me into your plan..."

"It's great looking back and looking at how much my life has changed. I just got back from San Diego last night; my partner and I were looking at property to buy out there. We were looking at 4 million dollar homes and 2 million dollar fix ups. We also are closing on a beach house in Maui tomorrow.

"I looked back at my note book I started in July of last year and I remember trying hard to believe that it was even possible for me to own 2 million dollars in property by the next year because I had no money at the time. Now it seems like 10 million in property seems like I am cheating my self and I should be asking for more... I have had a blast and I have learned so much. I listened to your February seminar yesterday and first I would like to say, I am very impressed with how much value the site has. You have added so much since I first subscribed. I really enjoy the seminars."

- It's not just about realizing monetary dreams. Take a look at how this program affected J. Wescott: "I am writing today to thank you for the info, to put it mildly. I have read your book and 'A Pocketful of Money' and I have been using your meditation every day, too. I was not prepared for the experience. Words cannot explain it, but a veil has been lifted from my sight. I was driving to a customer's office yesterday morning when it hit me. Even now I am choking up due to the sheer magnitude of the realization. I could go on and on about this, but in 5 days I have shifted gears from moderate middle class success to immense wealth. For me it was the "click" heard round the world when I "got it". Bob, thanks again, you've made me aware of who I was all along but could not see. It is so simple".

- There was a similar realization for H. Carr in her email response: "I read A Happy Pocket, I couldn't read it fast enough! I have to tell you, it pulled together & gelled everything for me. A Happy Pocket Full brought all that I had been reading right into the light, I couldn't believe that it was all backed up scientifically!

"I'm tearing up right now as I write this, it is so incredibly relieving to know, to absolutely KNOW, I have control over my life, amazing control...That amazing little book sealed my faith! It's only been a few days, but I'm seeing the world in a whole new light...I could go on and on, I'm so incredibly excited! I can't thank you enough for this amazing program you've put together...I can't wait to reread A Happy Pocket Full and all the other e-books as well! I simply KNOW my life is going to be amazingly wonderful from this moment on! Thank you, thank you, thank you and Source bless you and all the authors!!! With deepest appreciation, thanks and love"

- Nicole is now living the life of her dreams and share her faith with us: "Thank you and God Bless you for putting this program together. It's the link that I didn't even realize I was looking for. This information confirms everything I've been taught the last 7 years...I'm completely open to receiving this information because I've been prepared for it...Interesting. Awesome! Thanks a Million, and I am living the life of my dreams (by faith)."

- An enthusiastic response from M. Yarborough: "...let me God Bless You for giving me this wonderful program. It's my treat for myself for the week!!!"

- R. Lazare has quit just dreaming and has begun achieving: "I can't believe what I am reading, you can't imagine how much time I've wasted regretting the past and dreaming of the future...I haven't finished Happy Pocket yet but just the first few pages awoke something in me. Bob, it's going to be a (it is NOW a) fun journey for me while I practice daily, giving, sharing, and learning. God Bless you for sharing, as we are all one...Will write back soon."

- Sometimes dreams come to you, and other times, like G. Roberts, you learn to follow your dreams: "Within 3 months we were able to move to a bigger house. My partner was able to give up working in a dingy, stinking nightclub. Suddenly we had enough money to buy a nearly new car, and even things like a PC and mobile phone, items which had been unthinkable just a year before. The business expanded to the point where we need a bigger house from which to run it. It was as if the universe was giving us a second chance!...I choose to follow my dreams and am now building up a Hypnotherapy practice, following my hearts desire, doing a 'job' which I love...I'm beginning to feel wealthy, or at least better off than I've ever felt in the past. Certainly, paying bills is no longer an issue! Money is no longer a problem. I'm following my dream..."

- P. Rajan dreamed of financial freedom, here are his thoughts: *"Greetings and thank you for all the emails you have been sending me including the free lessons etc which have been a source of inspiration and motivation for me to begin understanding all the mistakes I've made especially in the way I had mismanaged my savings.

"You and the free materials you have given me has given me so much hope that I know will help me change my life for the better especially to have the financial freedom that I always dream of. Thank you dear Bob, for all your help, kindness and guidance that you are giving me. You will always remain in my thought. Hope to continue to hear from you as always. May the blessings be."*

- Rev. C. Andrix is learning to merge dreams with reality: "I just wanted to let you know that I am working with your priceless information daily and find it positively awesome. I purchased it less than a week ago and the only problem I'm having is staying asleep through the whole night; I am so excited by the material and all the possibilities/probabilities in, for and about my life. On the other hand, my dream life is so positive that I am continuously getting confirmations that the 'wealth consciousness' is seeding itself that I wake up and marvel at the exciting messages. Thanks so much for putting this all together. You are filling a huge and important mission."

- C. Perini sent this: "Thanks for a marvelous library of essential and overwhelmingly powerful information. Not only is the content remarkable, so is your service"

- Beth wrote us to say: "I just finished listening to the follow-up seminar...which was great as is everything that you give us. This is a perfect example of how you do whatever you can to share this way of life with us.....it's going the extra mile to do the little extra things like this for us (when you didn't even have to) that truly illustrate just how authentic, sincere and genuine you are... it works and how wonderful it is...it's helped me through some doubtful and frustrating times...it still does. You're a wonderful and gifted teacher....If it does become a university course (which I'll bet it does some day), please let me be one of your student testimonials! I know that I've said it before, Bob, but it just bears repeating....Thank you."
- T. McDaniels had this to say about the updates: "Bob, when you give me the updates on this, it always feels like Christmas! I like when I open my email and there is a notice for a update! THANKS FOR MAKING MY DAY!"

I have read your book, and I'm about half way through 'Happy pocket full...' I really appreciate all of your follow-up emails, and I try to check in with the forums each day to see what other people are saying. (I especially enjoy when YOU chime in on the discussions). I've been unemployed since March, however I now know that the abundance of the Universe is there and is coming in to and through me and that I have an income to attract.*

- It was great to hear from Sherry: "I am extremely early on in your course - so far I've read your book and just finished A Happy Pocketful of Money... life is just better all the way around. My husband got an unexpected bonus in his check this week; I've learned to see a situation I had been unhappy with at home through different, accepting eyes (which has reduced my stress level immensely); men have started flirting with me, it seems everywhere I go, as though I've suddenly become more attractive; I have found the direction a novel I am writing is to take, after having shelved it for two months; and, yes, I am terrifically excited about the possibilities in my life..."

"Your course has given concrete scientific support to what I've learned, and not only has that been helpful to ME, but it has helped me to teach my husband, so we can be on the same page, so to speak!... Well, that's it for now... though I expect many, MANY "miracles" to come. Thanks for your course!"

- Lynn shared the following: "I really do appreciate all the updates, etc. One way or another, I will continue to participate in your program. Everything I read in your book validates thoughts and feelings I've had for years as to how this universe works. You are putting it into a workable format, and for that I am immensely grateful! Also, I just thought you'd like to know, after spending less than a week with the course, a vehicle with half the mileage of my current one has been made available in a manner I can manage financially. Thanks, Bob!"

- Vaughn is glad to have bought the books: "First to say that I've read dozens of self help books. I downloaded your e-book the other day and I must say it's great. A lot of the stuff you're telling me is stuff I've read over and over again before. Your book however has a way of wording it that just makes it all seem so obvious and uplifting and for the first time I feel all the info has really "clicked" on for me!! It's really exciting and I'm hanging onto every word!!"

Your material is magnificent! Great stuff. I'm reading the e-books and listening to the meditations (and plan to do so every day)."*
- Looking forward to the future, C. Folts shares with us: "... I'm looking forward to the seminar greatly! I appreciate your work more than I can express in words. If not for your coaching, I would not have invested myself enough to grow from this experience. This is the beginning!"

- Laura shares her successes with us: "When I joined the WBR program I was very close to bankruptcy. I was afraid that I'd wake up one morning and my car would be repo'd!! Anyway, now I have thousands of dollars in the bank from a very good consulting gig, and dollars just keep showing up for me! I would definitely consider myself a success story. Life is really starting to be fun because I'm seeing how Law of Attraction can work in my favor when I remember to focus. Thanks so much for this program - I really appreciate how much you put into it. It's a pleasure to receive the emails and listen to the seminars and just plain joy all the resources you gather for us."
- J. LaPrada sent in these comments: "...I have discovered that I don't need the excess anger and pain. I can address issues I don't like much more successfully when I am able to remain calm and collected in the discussion. I have also been able to quit a job in the family business that I hate. I had been working with no pay and no respect in this business out of a feeling of duty. I finally realized, by listening to your seminars over and over that I was not contributing my best to the world as long as I stayed in that position. I am visualizing a new future for myself - with a position in which I am able to help others and where my skills are valued and respected, as well as properly compensated."

"I enjoy helping others, and am looking at a variety of avenues that would allow me to fulfill everything I want in a career path. I have been writing, taking a commercial copywriting course as well as signing up for coaching and working on fictional works as well. I am also adding joy to my visualizations of my life. I have always had a melancholy personality, and the experience of feeling joy is rare for me. Recently I spent an entire day feeling happy from the time I woke up through most of the day."

"I am sure this would never have happened without the Wealth Beyond Reason materials gradually sinking into my subconscious and making me realize that I deserve to be happy and successful and to have the respect that I had not commanded from the people around me in the past. I am grateful for your program and for the excellent material you offer. I am looking forward to a bright, joyful and abundant future by continuing to follow what I have learned from this program."

- R. Prosser: "I had just tried the free EFT material myself...it definitely made an impact with my long-standing issues of frustration! I have attended many seminars, read books, listened to course etc. over the years, and I consider myself to very aware of my feelings. However a short EFT session blew me away! I felt quite strange afterwards, and it took a few days for me to 'settle down' again. I notice that I get a lot more emotional now when watching films or even just reading stuff. Amazing."

Pretty amazing!"*

"The scientific angle about the quantum physics really connected with me. It is appreciated greatly!"*
- Dianne shares her feelings: "I felt the desire to share with you how wonderful I am feeling. ... I must say to you, what did the real trick was the word you used 'RELEASE' I did look into your recommendation, but also, I had a breakthrough and decided to put in writing everything I had chosen to feel, think, or do, at some point in my life and at the same time wrote down my new choices based on the new perception I have about myself. It was very powerful and liberating. Since I have been reading the material every day (I already read the 12-Point Life Saver, Wealth Beyond Reason) A Pocket Full of Money, it is shifting my perception greatly."
- J. Vlaming feels dedicated: "So you see I am 'deadly' serious about changing my life for the better! I really appreciate all your good work and dedication to helping people like me to make the breakthrough to a deeper understanding of how the Universe WORKS. I am amazed at how all this information fits together and is showing me so clearly just what I need to do step by step. But I have to tell you that it was the material in your 'Wealth Beyond Reason' workshop package which created the most amazing breakthroughs for me."
- Laura praises the seminars: *Well, I had to tell you that this seminar is VERY uplifting and inspiring! It is such a reflection of how I've been feeling recently and it just confirms for me that I am on the right track. I am really amazed, and I am seeing such delightful abundance flow into my experience, as well as 'signs of land' of even more coming!! I very much enjoyed the immense energy and knowing that came through in your seminar. It sounds like you're really cooking, and that you have a very big desire to see us get it too! - R. Love writes to say: "...I wanted to congratulate you for the tremendous amount of work you have put in to your explanations... when I read your stuff it is as if you are: first all understanding that this stuff is out way out because no one can see it...Secondly that you have been there done that and got the tee shirt, in applying it to your life so you are coming from a hands on perspective...which for me, is brilliant."

- From Anne: "There is some good news I want to share with you. As a student of Wealth Beyond Reason, my life has changed directions drastically. Bob, I have come to realize that I am so talented. The first thing from my mind was to start my own business and its working, Bob. I was so tired of working on these mediocre jobs and still couldn't pay my rent or my bills. It seemed the harder I worked, the more behind I got in my bills. Now I'm changing that. The pain I went through is what is driving me to success and I'm lovin' it!"

- Sandra sends her thanks: "Just wanted to thank you for the terrific Seminar for this month. Great job! I always appreciate the insight you offer and find your answers simple and clear."
- David is having fun: "Your course has two unexpected consequences, with respect to the linkages that you offer. Firstly, even if these linkages did not lead to anything very useful or productive (and I have found them ALL to be useful and productive) just tinkering around with the various 'toys' is fun - thus fulfilling the 'have fun' concept of your teaching."

"Secondly, concentrating attention on making these "fun" things operate, in the ways they are intended to, takes away, at least temporarily, concentration upon ones own struggles and 'ain't it awful' concerns.

"Finally, and more profoundly, by passing on the various linkages, you are 'cooperating with competitors'. In other words you are putting out support to us and to them, instead of trying to keep everything for yourself within a closed fist, so to speak. This is a good business practice, though not often thought of as such, as it creates greater choice and more abundance for recipients. This is much more 'economically' efficient than always attempting 'ruinous' competition. I could go on and on about the economics of this - but this is YOUR show - so I shall remain silent! I am sure that you get the point much more quickly than I can make it."

- Comments from A. Whistler: "I am so excited about the opportunity...and all it has to offer I am unable to stop looking through all the excellent tools in the website, WOW! Along with your course this is an incredible one two punch in the ole wealth building gut. Sure to bring anyone aspiring towards wealth consciousness an ABUNDANCE of wealth knowledge. It is full of all the fantastic tools to get anyone off the ground and running. The layout is easy to navigate and laid out nicely."
- M. Rojas soaks in information: "It's been a while since I accessed the program. I just wanted to say that the reason for this is that it has been so effective that I haven't felt that I needed to. That is a tremendous credit to the power of the information. Thanks for bringing the information to me."
- K. Gentry writes: "Without a doubt, I have greatly enjoyed the material. If it were not for your site I don't believe that I would have been reading their material and find myself really drenching myself with so much information. I do see that, you...is very sincere in that people do receive this valuable information, and you are not "all about making money" and this is clearly evident by all the research that you have done... I am finding myself getting up even earlier due to the excitement and enjoyment of all of this information.

"I just can't hardly wait to read more or to listen to over and over again...I am back on track more so than ever. It all makes perfectly good sense...I hope that what I have written to you, that it has you feeling good that someone else appreciates what you have shared that is extremely valuable."
- Skip stated: "Thank you for this material. The message was very timely! I have written to you before and mentioned that I am working NO playing with all the information. I love it. Changes are happening with in me. Once I root it all out I believe my troubles will be over!! ? I feel there is really some great financial possibilities. Thanks so much Bob. You have made a difference in mine and my family's life. Even writing this I feel the tremendous buzz (vibration)."

- Randall expresses appreciation: "Thanks for your continuing contribution to my life and others by your work, business and efforts through this web site. So again, thanks for staying in touch -- and your continuing contribution in this way."
- G. Holman wanted us to know: "I love the material and it's helping me to realize that I can be anything I want to be and have anything I want to have in my life. I am losing many of my dysfunctional beliefs as I go through the material and also I have been sharing and teaching my husband the things I am learning. We are both very excited starting this year off in positive mind set. Thanks so much for caring its rare!!"
- More thanks from Martyn: "... I just wanted to thank you for changing my way of viewing my life. Until five days ago, my life was always someone else's fault. Now I have come to understand that I AM and My will be done. I hope that this is not too confusing because I am finding it hard to put in to words the journey I am now embarking on. Once again, you have pointed me in the direction of my own salvation; for which I will be eternally grateful."
- Ann exclaims: "Wow, this was great. It was just what I needed! The whole thing caught my attention right from the get-go. Thank you for your generosity; thank you for following your intuition; thank you."
- Jennifer will "Go For It!": "Your advice and Ill never forget was...Go For It!!! I did and I went for an audition to start classes and act at the same time with a theatre group, a few hours ago. All present have experience in acting. There was the director telling us to act a scene so as to see how good our expression and pantomime were. You won't believe it, all the rest were criticized. He and the to be auditioned group clapped at my performance which I did with so much ease. I turned out the best of the group. The funny thing is, I knew as I walked in there that I would do just fine and that this was the beginning of something big... Amazing!!!"

MOTIVATIONAL

- Some words from Gizelle: "...I said to myself, "Hey, I could at least do all the reading that they are recommending!" So, the e-books were listed on your Wealth Beyond Reason web page and here I am today...a VERY serious student of LOA and applying it daily with the learning I receive through your material... you are doing a great, wonderful job Bob. My whole life has become studying and practicing "LOA". It's happening too. Seems like I can talk LOA to just about anyone...it has begun to flow out of my mouth and the response I get iswell....let's just say that nothing sends my vibration higher than someone having a 'WOW' moment of discovery and enlightenment as I talk with them!"
- Ben wrote to tell us: "Thank you very much for providing all this material at an extremely affordable price. I love that you go into the physics of how this works. It is incredible. I am currently selling cars and I am constantly "getting lucky" by attracting business. People I work with are saying I am on fire. My goal was 20 units for this month and to bring home $10,000, but since I am 'on fire' Why not 25 or 30 units and bring home $15,000 or $20,000."
- Andrew sent this in: *"Thank you for your interest. Let me say at the outset that I am convinced that I have gotten more than full value for the money I spent. I believe that I'm going to have a blast getting my body in shape at 50, making lots of money, creating a loving relationship, traveling, reaching enlightenment in this lifetime, and fulfilling my purpose.

"You're an angel who showed up at just the right time, and who even answers phone calls! My daughter, who is a single mom, and who lives here at the ashram, was very depressed the week I got WBR, because she was 'broke'. I sat her down at my computer, and she listened to your intro talk. Boom...she turned around. Her attitude is totally different. She is optimistic about the future, and is living in abundant consciousness again...I have also told my brother in Hawaii about you who just filed for bankruptcy a few weeks ago...he sent me a very enthusiastic email thanking me. It's very interesting...We're starting to see all the possibilities opening up for us... you have become a cog in my Wheel of Fortune!"

"Everyday I will be sending you a divine burst of light and love in gratitude for all your help, and will definitely be letting others know about WBR as my intuition guides me. Much love and appreciation..."

*"I gave myself the gift of your program, WBR, for my 50th birthday. When I ordered WBR from you, I had 100.00 in my bank account...but I knew that this was my next step, and didn't hesitate to order...today I got a certified letter from my parents (who just sold their house in Hawaii.), which contained a check for 1000.00 for my birthday., and I know that it's just the beginning. - Dr. J. Mercay expresses: "... in analyzing if your program is helping me I need to look at how I have changed inside myself. Most of what I have read from your material is stuff that I have known before. There are more things could say but will stop here."

I have been looking for work for 3 years and thinking that my approximate age, apparent from my resume, would prevent me from getting work. It didn't. The energy is starting to move. Thank you Bob. Thank you for opening new doors for me."*
- Nicole writes to say: "Once again you have shown that you are a living example of all that you teach. Thank you for this chance. I know it is important to be a grateful receiver as well as giver. Bob, you give of your time and energy with a generosity that is well beyond the average person. I know the universe will compensate you a hundred times or more."
- E. Shaw sends his comments: "Hi Bob I just wanted to tell you something that happened to me today. The day before Thanksgiving I went to buy some gas. Well, my card did not work and at that time a gentleman was asking people for money so that he could buy some McDonald's for food. So some people gave him some others didn't. He came to me and said, 'I will wash your windows if you will give me some money.'

Now, it was raining and I said, 'Well it is raining.'" And he said, 'but after the windows will be clean.' I chuckled and asked how much does he want. He said, 'Well I would like $20.00.' So, I gave him a $5 dollar bill feeling, happy, unattached to what he might really want it for and had positive feelings. Well, I left and had enough gas for a couple of days and decided to cash my scratch off tickets and went into a quickie mart. I redeemed the tickets and used four dollars from that winning to purchase two tickets. Well, I got home and won $5 dollars. Well, I thought maybe the universe is paying me back. Today, after Thanksgiving, I went to cash the ticket and I was told I would get back $10. I was like, 'wait a minute' in my head for I knew that it was only $5 dollars that I won I double checked.

“So I sit in my mini van and look up at the sky and thank the universe for this knowing that Giving works. This was the first time this had happened to me since starting to use all the wonderful laws of the universe. Please share this with people. This was not an error, this was done on purpose, and I knew it was the universe smiling down on me.”

➤ Mr. Brooks comments: "The last seminar you posted on the WBR site re: Review and consolidation of principles was a great help to me in making progress with implementing WBR into my life. I have the meditation CD and use it daily. Keep up your great work."

"Your product and your encouragement to do better are in and of themselves a blessing to those who are looking for change.....

➤ We received this from J. Martin: "However the information I got from You... tied everything together. Now I'm on my way and very pleased with the treasure I've found. Thank you for being a part of my life in the way you have. I learn and share something new every day."

And then later: "I was smiling and said to the Knower inside of me thank You. Now I know I'm in tune. It was only a little thing but it meant a lot to me as far as growth."

➤ Some final words from our friend, G. McCollough: "...Wealth Beyond Reason has been, for me, needed confirmation for what I have known to be true for some time now...I sell new homes and have been in a lull until recently (wonder why?!) I have many good stories. One is that just a day or two after reading the first free chapters, I received a notice that a class action suit against one of my previous creditors was being settled and I was entitled to a reward. Now I have seen these before and received a check for maybe three or four dollars, But this one paid out $500.00! WOW, not bad! That check came a few weeks later.

"I also loved it because I feel this company has taken advantage of many and loathed my association with them, and felt this was a just reward though I never anticipated it. Certainly there is more and I could go on and on as these things do happen. Please include me in your conference.

"Thought you might enjoy this story... I have always loved Jaguars but felt I could never afford one and just thought it would be something I would buy some day when I was rich. So I was looking on the internet for fun at Jags just to get the feeling and figure out what Jag I really liked and what I wanted. I accidentally signed up for web site called Jag lovers org where they allow members to post car ads...one day one caught my eye. I said 1990 XJ6 vanden plas $2500.00 in Evergreen CO which is about 30min away.

“First, my thought was this has to be a parts car or all rusted out. I didn't think much of it but I thought it is worth looking into so I emailed the guy and he said he was going on vacation he would be back in 2 weeks and I could come look at it if I wanted. A few weeks went by and one day I got an email with pictures of this beautiful black xj6 vp and I couldn't believe how good it looked so I called him still wanting to know what was wrong with it. He said nothing and it had low miles and now I am thinking I am going to buy it.

“ I drove up to evergreen and fell in love with the car and found out he just moved up there not long ago and bought a truck and needed a new horse trailer. So I got one of my dream cars for 2500.00 and I have had no problems with it and get complements on it all the time.

“Here is where it gets good though...We started talking about what he does for a living and what I do for a living. He mentioned he and his partner are looking to invest in some property. I mentioned that I had been investing in property full time. He was very interested in what I do so we set up a meeting with his partner. This all happened in July...and now Oct...my company and his company formed a partnership where they invested $200K into my business which will take it to the next level for me. Now is that is not one of the best deals on a car you have ever heard of?...”
